CELEBRATING 150 YEARS

As we embarked on the review of the School's Academic and PE uniforms in mid-2023, well ahead of the celebration of 150 years of Tintern, I could not have foreseen how informing, educating and unifying it was going to be for our community.

On almost every occasion we brought people together to propose ideas or to seek feedback, whether in the review committee, when seeking student feedback, or with parents and staff, there was ongoing reflection on the School's history and legacy, and a developing understanding of the new wardrobe expressing what our combined School represents.

The historic legacy of the School is in combination with the navy, green, and white of the girls' school since mid-last century, and the boys' school of navy, maroon and white on all garments. Designer Jonathan Ward has enlivened our garments with colour and some subtle re-styling, while retaining the legacy and polish of our current and past uniforms.

In showing photographs and uniform items to the community during the review, there was growing admiration for those who have gone before us, allied to a desire to offer students a wardrobe that they find comfortable and one they want to wear in a polished and well-presented way.

The Tintern Collection Celebrating 150 years delivers on that.

It was an honour to design the new Tintern Grammar student wardrobe and I'm thrilled to share it with the School community.

When embarking on the design process, I drew inspiration from the rich history of Tintern Grammar and the incredibly exciting future the School is building.

The new wardrobe is contemporary in its design but exudes a classic, timeless appeal, offering all students a choice of relaxed and tailored options for academic, sports, casual, and formal occasions.

The academic wardrobe is embellished with the School's mitre, and the new signature tri-stripe and T logo add to the appeal of the PE/Sports wardrobe. Offering a fashion-forward transition with contemporary styling, the combined collections sets the tone for the School's continued reputation for excellence.

With a focus on comfort and functionality, I have created a range of complementary items that celebrate individuality whilst also ensuring a strong, cohesive, and instantly recognisable School aesthetic, both on-campus and in the broader community.

I am sure that students will feel excited to get dressed for school and will enjoy collating outfits that express both their personal style and their pride in being a Tintern Grammar student.

Years 7-12 Academic Wardrobe

‘Other than our Formals (the ‘core’ wardrobe to be worn at Formal occasions in the Secondary School), students can choose to mix and match from the whole academic wardrobe of base layers and mid-layers.

No longer seasonal, students can choose to wear a dress, skirt, shorts or trousers, at any time of the year. Short and long-sleeved shirts (other than the Formals’ white, tuck-in, long-sleeve) are all designed to be worn out as per student preference and contemporary fashion.’
