

France and Germany Language Exchange

TINTERN
GRAMMAR

- Organised trip which is arranged with a German and French sister school.
- Tintern Families host a French or German student for about a month over July and August.
- All successful applicants fly to Paris or Dusseldorf around the end of November 2016 and return to Australia early January 2017.
- French students stay in Bordeaux and stay with families in the region. Our connection with Bordeaux is with the 'I love Lingua Exchange Program', a not for profit organisation which specialises in providing students with overseas exchange experiences.
- German Students travel to Erkelenz, a small historical town in the heart of the Rhineland. It will be with a sister school with a bilingual program. There are also a number of group outings arranged.
- Estimated cost of the trip is $3,700.
